The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease cept by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases

Chief Cause.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weaken or disease except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or uninary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily mide and may be easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. WHAT IS A DEMOCRAT?

A Being of Undefined Views, Waiting to Land In Office. The hardest word to define in the English language is the word "Democrat." It is said that foreigners who come to America find their greatest trouble in learning our language in the fact that the same word can mean so many different things. For instance, there is the word "well." It can be used in three or more different waysfor example, as an interjection, "Well! is that so?" as an adverb, "The man who was sick is well," and as a noun, "Get me a drink of cool water from the

Such as this mixes a foreigner up. It is even hard for native born Americans sometimes to use the right word in the right place. They are finding much trouble in this regard at present with the word Demo-orat. Mr. Grover Cleveland is a Demoerat. Hon. John G. Carlisle is a Demoerat. Mr. Hill of New York has said, "I am a Democrat." Messrs. P. Wat Hardin and J. O. S. Blackburn are Democrats. Mr. Ben D. Ringo, a former editor of The Herald, is a Democrat. Mr. Heber Matthews, who now edits The Herald, is a Democrat. But we find among these men differences of opinion on important issues. They rep-resent all sorts of ideas and opinions and yet are Democrats.

What is a Democrat anyhow? Let us see. The Democratic platform adopted at Chicago resulted in a split in the Democratic party. As a result large numbers of sound money Democrats supported Major McKinley either directly or indirectly. Sound money Democrats agreed with the Republicans as far as finances were concerned. What next? We now find in the United States senate many Democratic senators who are willing to vote for a protective tariff on wool, sugar and cotton. The protective tariff policy of the Republican party is being indorsed by Democratic United States senators.

We are also informed by tive Tariff league that many Democratic papers throughout the south are demanding tariff literature-papers that once were insulting to the league because it offered them such literature. Large numbers of Democrats, therefore, are standing on the financial and tariff planks of the Republican party.

This is hot all. The Populists at pres-Ont are engaged in a bitter fight to keep the Democrats frem crowding them off their platform. If the Populists do not keep in the middle of the road, it is only a matter of time until Populists will have to get down on their knees before the Democrats and pray, "Please, friendly Democrats, can we get up on our platform?"

In view of the facts, it appears that a Democrat can be anything and every-thing. We therefore give this definition of the word "Democrat:" A Democrat is a being of the human species who has no defined views on political issues; a being whose privilege it is to believe in and advocate any principle that will land him in office, no matter how great or small—"anything, O Lord, no mat-ter how small."—Hartford (Ky.)
